FORT WORTH, LLC, §

Debtor. §

MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO (I) SELL SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF THE DEBTOR'S ASSETS FREE AND CLEAR OF ALL LIENS, CLAIMS, ENCUMBRANCES, AND INTERESTS, (II) ASSUME AND ASSIGN CERTAIN
EXECUTORY CONTRACTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE, AND (III)
PROVIDE THE PROPOSED PURCHASER WITH A TOPPING FEE

Wellflex Energy Partners Fort Worth, LLC, as debtor and debtor-in-possession (the “Debtor”) hereby files its Motion for Authority to (i) Sell Substantially All of the Debtor's Assets Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Interests, (ii) Assume and Assign Certain Executory Contracts in Connection with the Sale, and (iii) Provide the Proposed Purchaser with a Topping Fee (the “Sale Motion”), requesting entry of an order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, and 365, and Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure:

- a) authorizing the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests (the "Sale");
- b) authorizing the payment of ad valorem personal property taxes and Simmons Bank secured indebtedness due and owing at Closing, with all remaining liens, claims and encumbrances attaching to the remaining proceeds of the Sale;
- c) approving the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA") with PetroSmith Equipment, LP ("PetroSmith" or "Purchaser") attached hereto as Exhibit A;
- d) approving the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts (the "Assumed Contracts") to the Purchaser;
- e) providing the Purchaser a Topping Fee; and
- f) granting related relief.

In support of the Sale Motion, the Debtor respectfully states as follows:

I.
PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Like many companies in the oil field services industry, the Debtor's operations were deeply affected by the economic impact of a collapse in demand caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and the excess production initiated by Russia and Saudi Arabia that immediately preceded the pandemic. There has been an unprecedented drop in demand for oilfield services and dramatic declines in service pricing. Despite being well positioned with "major customers", the downward acceleration in overall drilling and completion activity have outpaced the defensive measures undertaken by the Debtor to reduce costs to keep the business viable. The decline in revenue has substantially reduced the Debtor's working capital and liquidity.

2. Accordingly, in the early summer of 2020, the Debtor began an extensive process to market and sell its assets as a "going concern". On August 26, 2020, the Debtor entered into a non-binding letter of intent to sell substantially all of its assets as a "going concern". Regretfully, the "going concern" sale fell through, and the Debtor was forced to terminate most of its employees and to cease most of its business operations<sup>1</sup>. The Debtor sold its Rhome, Texas and White Settlement, Texas real property facilities in August 2020 to two (2) separate buyers for an aggregate amount of approximately $7,400,000, and used the net proceeds of the sale to repay mortgage indebtedness due and owing to Simmons Bank. The Debtor sold its vehicles for approximately $300,000 in October 2020.

3. The Debtor has recently entered into a contract to sell most of its remaining assets to PetroSmith for $2,200,000. The Debtor has filed a “Sale Motion” contemporaneously with the bankruptcy petition requesting authority to sell substantially all of its remaining assets to PetroSmith subject to higher and/or better offers that may be received and accepted by the Debtor.

4. PetroSmith acknowledges that the Debtor will accept bids (“Bids”) from other prospective purchasers (collectively, “Bidders”) for the sale of its assets on terms and conditions substantially the same in all respects to the APA. The sale of the Acquired Assets, the approval of the APA, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the APA, are expressly subject to (i) higher and/or better offers that may be received and accepted by the Debtor, and (ii) entry of the Sale Order by the Bankruptcy Court.

5. If the Bankruptcy Court approves a higher and/or better offer by a third party that exceeds PetroSmith’s final offer, and the alternative sale closes, the Debtor shall request authority to pay PetroSmith one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) (the “Topping Fee”) at the closing of the alternative Sale. The Debtor’s request this Court authorize and approve the Topping Fee shall constitute an administrative expense senior to all administrative-expense claims except (a) administrative claims provided under the Cash Collateral Order, and (b) expense claims of the Debtor's professionals.

6. The "Acquired Assets" to be sold under the APA are primarily the Debtor's inventory and equipment, the QEP purchase order, the Net QEP deposit, and the Debtor's intellectual property. The Debtor also proposes to assume and assign certain master service agreements ("MSAs") identified by the Purchaser and listed in the APA (the "Assumed Contracts").

7. At the hearing on the Sale Motion, the Debtor would show the following:

- a. That the sale of the Debtor's assets to the Purchaser under the circumstances is a sound exercise of the Debtor's business judgment, after arm's-length negotiations that resulted in the best value available for such Assets;
- b. That the terms of the APA are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances; and,
- c. Assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts is in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate, and its creditors.

8. The Debtor will further show that the proposed sale of its assets is necessary and appropriate in light of its economic circumstances, and is in the best interests of its estate and its creditors.

9. As a result, the Debtor should be authorized to sell all of its rights, title, and interests in the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser. The Debtor requests authority to pay the following at Closing from the proceeds of the Sale:

- (i) 2020 ad valorem personal property taxes (approximately $115,000); and
- (ii) Simmons Bank outstanding first priority secured indebtedness (approximately $1,885,000).

10. All remaining liens, claims and encumbrances, including the second priority liens of the Subordinated Secured Creditors, shall attach to the remaining proceeds of the sale.

11. The Debtor also requests approval of the Topping Fee payable to the Purchaser in the event that the Debtor receives and consummates a sale to a third party offering a higher and/or better price for the assets.

II.
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has jurisdiction to consider the Sale Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

13. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are §§ 105, 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code,<sup>2</sup> and Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

III.
BACKGROUND

A. The Chapter 11 Case

14. On October 22, 2020 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtor remains in possession of its property and is managing its business as debtor-in-possession pursuant to Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. The Debtor continues to operate and to manage its business as a “debtor-in-possession” pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Case pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code. No official committee of unsecured creditors has been appointed at this time.

16. Additional details concerning the Debtor, its operational history and capital structure, and the circumstances that led to the filing of this Chapter 11 Case can be found in the First Day Declaration of Nicholas Klaus (the “First Day Declaration”) filed at Docket No. 9 in the above-captioned case.

B. The Proposed Sale Hearing

17. The APA may be terminated by the Purchaser:

- a. if this Sale Motion is not filed within five (5) business days of the Effective Date of the APA;
- b. if a Sale Order is not entered by November 16, 2020; and
- c. if the closing does not occur by November 18, 2020.

18. The proposed Cash Collateral Order provides:

- a. the Debtor shall file an emergency motion to sell substantially all of its assets (the “Sale Motion”) with a proposed sale order (the “Sale Order”), both of which substantially in a form acceptable to the First Priority Lender, on the Petition Date. The Debtor shall obtain approval of the Sale Order by no later than 30 days after the Petition Date.
- a. the Debtor shall consummate the sale of substantially all its assets to PetroSmith Equipment, LP or other party providing a higher or better offer on terms acceptable to the First Priority Lender, by no later than 30 days after the Petition Date.

19. Accordingly, the Debtor requests this Motion be set for hearing on November 16, 2020 or such date available to the Court.

IV.
RELIEF REQUESTED AND BASIS THEREFOR

20. By this Sale Motion, pursuant to sections 105, 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014, the Debtor seeks an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Sale Order”) that:

- a. authorizes the Sale of the Assets to the Purchaser free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances;
- g) authorizes the payment of ad valorem personal property taxes and Simmons Bank first priority secured indebtedness at closing, with all remaining liens, claims and encumbrances attaching to the remaining proceeds of the Sale;
- b. approves the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser;
- c. waives any fourteen (14)-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rules 6004 and 6006; and,
- d. grants such other and further relief as is just and proper.

A. The Sale Is an Exercise of Sound Business Judgment and Should be Approved.

21. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to sell assets of the estate other than in the ordinary course of business and provides, in relevant part that: “[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate ....”<sup>3</sup>

22. Courts approve proposed sales of property pursuant to § 363 if the transaction represents the reasonable business judgment of the debtor.<sup>4</sup> If a valid business justification exists for the sale, as it does here, a debtor’s decision to sell property out of the ordinary course of business enjoys a strong presumption “that in making a business decision the directors of a

Air Lines)*, 780 F.2d 1223, 1226 (5th Cir. 1986) (“[F]or the debtor-in-possession or trustee to satisfy its fiduciary duty ... there must be some articulated business justification for using, selling, or leasing the property outside the ordinary course of business.”); In re Moore, 608 F.3d 253, 263 (5th Cir. 2010) (“A sale of assets under § 363 ... is subject to court approval and must be supported by an articulated business justification, good business judgment, or sound business reasons.”); *In re Delaware & Hudson Rv. corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in an honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company.”<sup>5</sup>

23. In determining whether a proposed § 363(b)(1) sale satisfies the “business judgment standard,” courts consider the following: (a) whether a sound business justification exists for the sale; (b) whether adequate and reasonable notice of the sale was given to interested parties; (c) whether the price is fair and reasonable; and (d) whether the parties have acted in good faith.<sup>6</sup> The Debtor will show that the proposed sale satisfies all these factors.

24. First, the Debtor has proposed the Sale of its Assets after thorough consideration of all viable alternatives and has concluded that the Sale is supported by a number of sound business reasons. In particular, the Debtor submits that the facts described above support an expeditious Sale of its Assets to preserve value for the estate and provide a strong business justification for the Sale of its Assets. The Debtor believes that the best way to maximize value to the estate and the creditors thereof is through the Sale to the Purchaser.

25. Second, the Debtor will provide adequate notice of this Sale Motion under the circumstances described above. The Debtor submits that that such notice constitutes adequate and reasonable notice to interested parties. Additionally, the Debtor will conduct a sale process approved by this Court, and will contact any other parties that may have an interest in the Debtor's Assets to inform such parties of the proposed sale to solicit higher and better offers.

26. Third, the value to be received by the Debtor for its Assets is the highest possible value under the circumstances. Prior to the Sale Hearing, the proposed Sale to the Purchaser will be subject to higher and better offers should the Debtor receive any such offers from interested parties.

27. Fourth, the Debtor believes that the purchase price to be obtained for the Debtor's Assets is fair and reasonable. Further, the Debtor will show at the Sale Hearing that the proposed Sale to the Purchaser was negotiated in good faith. Each party will have been represented by counsel throughout the transaction. For the foregoing reasons, the Debtor submits that the approval of the proposed Sale is appropriate and warranted under § 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. The Sale of the Assets Will be Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Interests.

28. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to sell assets free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances in property of an entity other than the estate if

- (i) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits a sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (ii) such entity consents;
- (iii) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the value of all liens on such property;
- (iv) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- (v) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.<sup>7</sup>

Because section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code is drafted “in the disjunctive,” satisfaction of any one of its five (5) requirements will suffice to permit the sale of the Assets “free and clear” of liens and interests.<sup>8</sup>

29. With regard to the Sale of the Assets to the Purchaser, the Debtor believes that at least one of the tests in § 363(f) will be satisfied. In particular, the Debtor believes that § 363(f)(2) will be met because the Debtor’s primary secured creditor, whose liens will attach to the proceeds from the Sale of the Assets to the same extent and priority as such liens exist in the Assets, consents to the proposed Sale.

C. The Purchaser Is Entitled to Protections as a Good-Faith Purchaser

30. This Court has upheld § 363 purchase agreements “negotiated, proposed, and entered into … in good faith, without collusion … [resulting from] arm’s-length bargaining with … parties represented by independent counsel.”<sup>9</sup> A sale to a good-faith purchaser cannot be avoided under § 363(m), unless the sale authorization was stayed pending appeal.<sup>10</sup> However, “[t]he trustee may avoid a sale … if the sale price was controlled by an agreement among potential bidders....”<sup>11</sup> Additionally, for the sale to be considered in good-faith, consideration must: (1) be fair and reasonable; (2) be the highest and best offer for the property, and; (3) constitute reasonably equivalent value, fair value, and fair consideration.<sup>12</sup>

31. The Debtor will show at the Sale Hearing that it negotiated the APA at arm's-length, in good faith, to achieve the best offer for the Assets. The Debtor will show that the Purchaser was represented by counsel throughout such negotiations, and that the Purchaser is not an affiliate or insider of the Debtor or otherwise related to the Debtor. Moreover, any equity ownership or future compensation offered to the Debtor's insiders will be disclosed to this Court at the Sale Hearing. As such, the Debtor will show that the Purchaser is entitled to the protections of a good-faith purchaser under § 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and none of the applicable asset purchase agreement(s) constitutes an avoidable transaction pursuant to § 363(n).

32. Further, the Debtor submits that any agreement executed with or related to the Sale of its Assets to the Purchaser will provide substantial value to the bankruptcy estate because it will facilitate an efficient and valuable disposition of its Assets for fair and reasonable consideration.<sup>13</sup>

D. The Debtor May Enter into the APA with the Purchaser or Any Other Executed Agreement Related to or Associated with the Sale of the Assets.

33. In connection with a sale of substantially all of a debtor's assets, courts routinely approve entry into asset purchase agreements.<sup>14</sup> The Debtor will show that the APA has been

E. Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases is Authorized by Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

34. Sections 365(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code authorize a debtor-in-possession to assume, subject to the court's approval, executory contracts or unexpired leases of the debtor.<sup>15</sup> In turn, section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code codifies the requirements for assuming an unexpired lease or executory contract of a debtor, providing as follows:

(b)(1) If there has been a default in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, the trustee may not assume such contract or lease unless, at the time of assumption of such contract or lease, the trustee

- (A) cures or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly cure, such default ...;
- (B) compensates, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and
- (C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease.<sup>16</sup>

35. In analyzing whether the assumption or rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to § 365(a) should be approved, courts apply the "business-judgment" test, which requires a determination that the requested assumption or rejection be "advantageous to the estate and the decision be based on sound business judgment.”<sup>17</sup> Courts generally will not second-guess a debtor’s business judgment concerning the assumption of an executory contract.<sup>18</sup>

36. Here, the Debtor’s assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser meets the business-judgment standard and satisfies the requirements of § 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. As discussed above, the Sale contemplated by this Sale Motion will provide significant benefit to the Debtor and its estate. Because the Debtor cannot obtain the benefits of the Sale without the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the assumption of these Assumed Contracts is undoubtedly a sound exercise of the Debtor’s business judgment.

37. Further, a debtor-in-possession may assign an executory contract or an unexpired lease of the debtor if it assumes the agreement in accordance with § 365(a), and provides adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee, “whether or not there has been a default” under the agreement. 11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(2). managing the type of enterprise or property assigned.<sup>19</sup> The meaning of “adequate assurance of future performance” depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but it should be given “practical, pragmatic construction.”<sup>20</sup>

38. Here, all monetary defaults that must be cured (the “Cure Costs”) under § 365(b) as a pre-condition to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts<sup>21</sup> will be cured prior to the proposed closing. At the Sale Hearing, the Debtor will demonstrate to the satisfaction of this Court that the Purchaser has sufficient assets to continue performance under any Assumed Contract. Therefore, the Sale Hearing will provide this Court and other interested parties with the opportunity to evaluate and, if necessary, challenge the ability of that offeror to provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Assumed Contracts. Accordingly, the Debtor submits that the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts as set forth herein should be approved.

39. To assist in the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts, the Debtor requests that the Bankruptcy Court enter an order providing that anti-assignment provisions in the Assumed Contracts shall not restrict, limit, or prohibit the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts and are deemed and found to be unenforceable anti-assignment provisions within the meaning of § 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

40. Section 365(f)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a debtor-in-possession to assign unexpired leases and executory contracts free from such anti-assignment restrictions, providing, in pertinent part, that:

[N]otwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law, that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment of such contract or lease, the trustee may assign such contract or lease under paragraph (2) of this subsection . . . .<sup>22</sup>

41. By operation of law, § 365(f)(1) invalidates provisions that prohibit, restrict, or condition assignment of an executory contract or unexpired lease.<sup>23</sup> Section 365(f)(3) goes beyond the scope of § 365(f)(1) by prohibiting enforcement of any clause creating a right to modify or terminate the contract or lease upon a proposed assumption or assignment thereof.<sup>24</sup>

42. Other courts have recognized that provisions that have the effect of restricting assignments also cannot be enforced.<sup>25</sup> Similarly, in In re Mr. Grocer, Inc., the court noted that:

[The] case law interpreting § 365(f)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code establishes that the court does retain some discretion in

<sup>23</sup> See In re Pin Oaks Apartments, 7 B.R. 364, 367 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 1980) (finding that § 365(f)(1) grants the debtor “rights to assign a lease to a third party who becomes fully liable thereunder, notwithstanding any contrary contractual provisions which restrict, prohibit or condition any such assignment”). See, e.g., Coleman Oil Co., Inc. v. The Circle K Corp. (In re The Circle K Corp.), 127 F. 3d 904, 910-11 (9th Cir. 1997) (“[N]o principle of bankruptcy or contract law precludes us from permitting the Debtors here to extend their leases in a manner contrary to the leases’ terms, when to do so will effectuate the purposes of section 365.”).

<sup>24</sup> See, e.g., In re Jamesway Corp., 201 B.R. 73 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1996) (finding that § 365(f)(3) prohibits enforcement of any lease clause creating right to terminate lease because it is being assumed or assigned, thereby indirectly barring assignment by debtor; all lease provisions, not merely those entitled anti-assignment clauses, are subject to court’s scrutiny regarding anti-assignment effect).

<sup>25</sup> See In re Rickel Home Centers, Inc., 240 B.R. 826, 831 (D. Del. 1998) (“In interpreting Section 365(f), courts and commentators alike have construed the terms to not only render unenforceable lease provisions which prohibit assignment outright, but also lease provisions that are so restrictive that they constitute de facto anti-assignment provisions.”); see also In re U.L. Radio Corp., 19 B.R. 537, 543 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1982) (“Any lease provision, not merely one entitled ‘anti-assignment clause,’ would be subject to the court’s scrutiny regarding its anti-assignment effect.”).

determining that lease provisions, which are not themselves ipso facto anti-assignment clauses, may still be refused enforcement in a bankruptcy context in which there is no substantial economic detriment to the landlord shown, and in which enforcement would preclude the bankruptcy estate from realizing the intrinsic value of its assets.<sup>26</sup>

Thus, the Debtor requests that any anti-assignment provisions be deemed not to restrict, limit, or prohibit the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts and be deemed and found to be unenforceable anti-assignment provisions within the meaning of section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Cause Exists to Eliminate Any Stay Imposed by the Bankruptcy Rules.

43. Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) provides that an “order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property ... is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.”<sup>27</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 6006 provides that an “order authorizing the trustee to assign an executory contract or unexpired lease under § 365(f) is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.”<sup>28</sup>

44. The Debtor requests that the Sale Order be effective immediately, thereby waiving the 14-day stays imposed by Bankruptcy Rules 6004 and 6006. These waivers or eliminations of the 14-day stays are necessary for the Sale to close as expeditiously as possible. The Debtor respectfully submits that it is in the best interest of its estate to close the Sale as soon as possible after all closing conditions have been met or waived. Accordingly, the Debtor requests that the Court eliminate the 14-day stays imposed by Bankruptcy Rules 6004 and 6006.

G. The Proposed Topping Fee Is Reasonable Under the Circumstances.

45. In the event that the proposed Sale to the Purchaser does not close on or before November 15, 2020—whether as a result of the receipt of a higher and/or better offer accepted and closed by the Debtor, the Debtor request authority to pay the Purchaser the Topping Fee as compensation for the time and expense it will have incurred in being involved in this sale process. The Debtor believes that a Topping Fee of $100,000, is reasonable under the circumstances.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that this Court enter the proposed Sale Order and award the Debtor such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
